Exhibit

The Silk Roads constitute the pan-Asian network of overland trade routes connecting Chang’an (now Xi’an) to Antioch and beyond, that flourished from the aftermath of Alexander the Great’s conquests to the era of Mongol domination across Asia. This exhibition will sample print and electronic materials that document the lands, peoples, history, cultures and arts of the Silk Roads in the Queens College libraries.

December 4, 2015 - June 30, 2016
Monday - Thursday: 7:30am - 10:00pm
Friday: 7:30am - 05:00pm
Saturday - Sunday: 8:00am - 05:00pm

Venue: Barham Rotunda
Queens College, Benjamin Rosenthal S. Library

For more information contact: artlibrary@qc.cuny.edu - (718) 997-3770

http://silkroads.qc.cuny.edu
Sponsored by the Queens College Foundation & the Office of the President